7. Competition System

1. Stroke Competition

i. Singles Preliminary

After players complete the preliminary competition of 24 fairways, the sum of strokes of each player will be the Preliminary score. The top 12 players will qualify for the Singles Final. When scores are tie, whoever has the most of the least stroke fairways among the last 12 fairways is the winner. Accordingly, result shall be evaluated in the same manner.

ii. Singles Final

The top 12 players from Singles Preliminary will be eligible to play in the Final, another 12-fairway round. The sum strokes of 36 fairways from the Singles Preliminary and Final will be added up for the eligibility of the winner. Any player who scores the least strokes is the winner.

iii. Doubles Preliminary

a. The Men and Women Doubles, players take turns in striking the ball. Male or Female players who's names listed first on the registration roster should strike first on the first and pointed fairways, and the other players should strike second and take turns in striking the ball until gating .

iv. Doubles Final

Top 12 pairs in the Doubles Preliminary will qualify for the Doubles Final of additional 12 fairways competition. The final score is the strokes sum of the 12 fairways of Preliminary and Final, the total 24 fairways. Any pair who scores the least strokes is the winner. Order of taking turns in striking is the same methods as in the Preliminary.

v. Teams

Each team consists of 4 – 6 players, and the strokes sum in each round of the best 4 players of the Stroke Preliminary Competition will be counted as the team score. The team which has the least number of strokes is the winning team.

vi. Tie for Singles / Teams Events

a. For Singles Events, in case there are 2 or more players secured the same strokes, whoever has the most of the least stroke fairways among the last 12 fairways is the winner. Accordingly, result shall be evaluated in the same manner.

b. For Teams Events, in case 2 or more teams secure the same strokes, any team with player that has the least strokes is the winner. If there is still a tie, then any team with player that has the second least strokes is the winner. Accordingly, results shall be evaluated in the same manner. If the result is still the same, the Organizing Committee will construct alternate methods to decide the winner.

2.Fairway Competition

i. Competition Format

Players will compete in single-elimination and will play from the appointed 1st to 12th fairway. The player who scores the least strokes in each fairway will be the winner of the fairway. A tie is counted when both score the same number of strokes. Anyone leads by a number of winning fairways greater than the number of fairways remaining to be played is the winner, and the competition is finished.

ii. Singles

The Organizing Committee should determine the order of play by drawing lots. Each group consists of 2 players and will play from the appointed 1st to 12th fairway.

iii. Doubles

The Organizing Committee should determine the order of play by drawing lots. Each group consists of 2 pairs and will play from the appointed 1st to 12th fairway. Players whose names listed first on the registration roster should strike first on the odd-numbered fairways, and the other players should strike first on the even-numbered fairways.

a. Striking Order

In Fairway Competitions, no matter if the ball stops on the gate area or fairway, the player/pair with ball which stops further from the gate shall hit first.

b. Tie for Fairway Events

When fairways competition ended in a tie after completing 12 fairways competition, players/pairs will play sudden death and compete from the 1st fairway to the next, whoever first wins the fairway is the winner, and the competition is finished.

c. Scores Record

- I. Players in the same group will take turns to score for each other, and this method shall be applied to all events unless stayed other. The Organizing Committee will only appoint referees to patrol between fairways.
- II. In events listed below, the Organizing Committee will appoint referees to carry out the scoring duty:
 - i. Stroke Competition Finals
